

Michael Burke is the Chair of the 25,000-member American Bar Association Section of International Law for the 2011-12 year, and is a Partner of Arnall Golden Gregory, LLP in the Washington, DC office, in the Corporate Practice Team. He is an editor and co-author of the Corporate Counsel's Guide to Doing Business in China, 3d ed., and is the United States Country Councillor for LAWASIA. Mr. Burke also serves on the Board of Directors of the India China America Institute.

Mr. Burke focuses his practice on cross-border transactions, including joint ventures, strategic alliances, private equity investments, mergers and acquisitions, distribution and reseller networks, and technology licensing. He also advises clients on compliance with U.S. export controls regulations, U.S. economic sanctions programs, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and U.S. antiboycott regulations. Mr. Burke counsels clients on U.S. and international privacy, data protection and information security issues, and represents clients before the Federal Trade Commission in connection with information security investigations.

Mr. Burke has counseled clients on transactions in more than 45 jurisdictions, and he advises U.S. companies on the structure and operation of investments in Greater China. He has extensive experience in China-related direct investments, acquisitions, private equity transactions and technology ventures. Mr. Burke has provided technical legal assistance to the Chinese government on the Provisions on Acquisitions of Chinese Enterprises by Foreign Investors; Securities Law; Company Law; and the Regulation on the Administration of Foreign-invested Venture Capital Enterprises. He has authored more than 32 publications focused on doing business in China, most recently the Corporate Counsel's Guide to Doing Business in China, 3d ed. Mr. Burke is a past Co-chair of the ABA Section of International Law's China Committee and was selected to be a U.S. delegate to the 2003 Legal Exchange of the U.S.-China Joint Commission on Commerce and Trade.

In addition to Greater China, Mr. Burke has successfully counseled clients on transactions involving the European Union (particularly Ireland), Canada, Mexico, South Korea, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand, Brazil, Argentina, India, Russia, Israel, Qatar and Saudi Arabia. Mr. Burke's experience extends from traditional manufacturing through biotechnology, software, mining, retailers and online businesses.

Education

Georgetown University Law Center, Juris Doctorate, 1998
Georgetown University, Bachelor of Science from the School of Foreign Service, 1993 (cum laude)

Admitted to Practice

District of Columbia Bar, 2002
New York State Bar, 2000
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit
U.S. Court of International Trade
U.S. Supreme Court

Publications

Corporate Counsel's Guide to Doing Business in China, 3d. ed., West Publishing, 2008-10
"International Joint Ventures—People's Republic of China," Joint Ventures in the International Arena, 2d. ed., ABA Publishing, 2010
"Liberalization and Reform of China's Securities Markets after WTO Accession," Financial Restructuring and Reform in Post-WTO China, Kluwer Law International, 2007
"The Legal Systems in India-China: A Comparative Perspective," Indian Journal of Economics & Business (Special Issue), 2006

Speeches and Presentations

"Nuts and Bolts of International Commercial Law," ABA Section of International Law Spring Meeting, Washington DC, 2011
"Trade and Development in Asia/Pacific," International Legal Exchange Program to Australia and New Zealand, Sydney, New South Wales, 2010
"Comparative Approaches to Rule of Law Development," Japan Federation of Bar Associations Seminar, Tokyo, 2009
"Venture Capital and M&A in China," Asian Business Conference, Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia, 2006