

Diego P. Fernández Arroyo is a professor at the School of Law of Sciences Po in Paris since 2010, on leave from the Complutense University of Madrid. He teaches international dispute resolution, arbitration and conflict of laws. He is co-director of the Global Governance Studies Program and co-director of the Research Project Private International Law as Global Governance (PILAGG). Professor Fernández Arroyo is member of the Curatorium of the Hague Academy of International Law, former President of the American Association of Private International Law (2007/2010) and member of a number of academic institutions (International Academy of Comparative Law, International Academy of Commercial and Consumer Law, International Law Association, International Arbitration Institute, etc.).

Former Professor of the University of Salamanca and Visiting Professor of the Universities Paris II, Lyon III, Paris III, Fribourg, Federal of Santa Catarina, Federal of Rio Grande do Sul, Federal of Espírito Santo, Ottawa, California (Davis), Iberoamericana (Mexico City), La Habana, Doshisha (Kyoto), Central of Venezuela, National of Buenos Aires, National of Cordoba, Montevideo, Medellin, etc., Professor Fernández Arroyo is also a member of Argentinean Delegations before UNCITRAL (Working Group on Arbitration) and CIDIP (Organization of American States). He represents ASADIP before the Hague Conference of Private International Law as well.

Professor Fernández Arroyo has been involved in the practice of international arbitration as an arbitrator and a consultant. He has developed several projects in the field of arbitration and international business law for the European Union, the Andean Community, the Mercosur, and the Latin-American Integration Association. He has published several books and a number of articles and notes on international business law, arbitration, private international law, EC law and comparative law in publications of Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, France, Germany, Italy, Mexico, Netherlands, Paraguay, Peru, Portugal, Spain, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States of America, Uruguay and Venezuela. Professor Fernández Arroyo is co-editor of the Globalization Law Library.