

Curriculum Vitae

Mrs. Yujun Guo

Qualifications

1. Doctor of Law degree, School of Law, Wuhan University, 1993.
2. Master of Law degree, School of Law, Wuhan University, 1989.
3. Bachelor of Law degree, School of Law, Wuhan University, 1987.

Working Experience

Professor, Institute of International Law, Wuhan University, China, 2001 ~ ;

Deputy secretary-general of Standing Committee of People's Congress of Hubei Province, P. R. China, 2011 ~ ;

Experience of Study Abroad

Visiting scholar, Harvard Yeching Institute, Harvard University, U.S., Oct.2007 to Sept. 2008;

Guest researcher, Institute for International and Comparative Law, Osnabruck University, Germany, Jan.2000 to July, 2000;

Visiting student, Law School, Hokkaido University, Japan, Oct. 1991 to Apr. 1993;

References

Member of Intellectual Property and Private International Law Committee of International Law Association, 2011 ~ ;

Member of Working Group on Choice of Law in International Contracts sponsored by Hague Conference on Private International Law, 2010 ~ ;

Director (since 1995), vice-general secretary (since 1998), vice president and general secretary (since 2003), China Society of Private International Law ;

Arbitrator of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, 2008 ~ ;

Arbitrator of Wuhan Arbitration Commission, 1997 ~ .

Research Interests

Conflict of Laws, International Litigation, International Commercial Arbitration, Art and Cultural Heritage Law

Publications

She wrote some papers on conflict of laws, international litigation, international commercial arbitration as well as art and cultural heritage Law.