Practical Handbook on the Operation of the Hague Service Convention

Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law

This fully revised and expanded edition of the Practical Handbook on the Operation of the Hague Service Convention offers detailed explanations on the general operation of the Convention as well as authoritative commentaries on the major issues raised by practice over the past forty years. The Handbook analyses or otherwise refers to approximately 250 court decisions rendered in a great number of jurisdictions in application of the Convention.

The Handbook also contains a FAQ section with succinct and practical replies that offer a quick overview of the Convention's main provisions and basic features. This section is usefully complemented by four Explanatory Charts on various aspects of the Convention's operation.

This paper edition of the Handbook comes with a fully searchable and easy-to-use e-book (in PDF format).

This new edition of the Practical Handbook was prepared by Mr. Christophe Bernasconi (First Secretary), with the assistance of Mrs. Laurence Thébault (Legal officer).
